

Ubiquity: The Journal of Literature, Literacy, and the Arts, Creative Works Strand, Vol. 5 No. 2, Fall/Winter 2018
Ubiquity: <http://ed-ubiquity.gsu.edu/wordpress/>
ISSN: 2379-3007

Inheritances

© Renée Schatteman

Abstract

This poem describes a funeral of a grandmother, giving attention to the six grandsons who carry her casket. While the young men are quick to remove the gloves they are wearing after the hearse has left, the poem's narrator suggests that the grandmother's blood flows in them and creates a link with those generations that are yet to come.