© Stefani Boutelier

Social poverty w/o phone, thought is numbing
Pings, noises, radiation humming Thumb joint fatigue in its holding SmartMuscles from tapping and scrolling

#poundsigning

A middle finger to you, screen of applications
Immediacy to teach, learn, control--consumption
Hijacking my time and imagination Traveling through a googolplex of information

#keepingitrealwithwificonnection

Sitting, ringing, vibrating in my pocket
Blurring and tiring my eye socket
No longer do we dare mock it
We are school'd every time we unlock it

#blackscreensreplacedeyecontact

Immediate satisfaction in all apps of life, a digital citizen
More device contact than humans, no time to mend Lives are banal, no need for friends Expensive rectangle lifeline, all in my back end

#whathappensonlinestayonline

Sum-art-fone indeed; autocorrect increases my intelligence 1:1, authentic communication--oh the reluctance
Increase in isolation and there is no defense Hashtags creating dunces or more like omnipotence?!?!

#culturalappropriationofdigitalnatives

I cannot not look, endless spectrum of use, addiction

Double negatives, acronyms, limited diction

Humanity has dulled, spawned an affliction

Block me, troll me, just don't leave me--a social contradiction
