

Author Bio: Janet Ruth Heller served as president of the Michigan College English Association. She taught literature, composition, creative writing, linguistics, and women's studies. She published the poetry books Nature's Olympics, Exodus, Folk Concert: Changing Times, and Traffic Stop; the scholarly book Coleridge, Lamb, Hazlitt, and the Reader of Drama; the middle-grade story about sibling rivalry, The Passover Surprise; and the award-winning picture book about bullying, How the Moon Regained Her Shape.